

Music Riddles — Sheet 1

Instructions: Read each riddle carefully. Use the hint if you get stuck, and write your answer on the line provided.

1. I have many keys, but not one of them opens a lock. What am I?

Hint: I sit in the parlor with my lid propped up.

2. I only speak when I am beaten, and the louder you strike, the more I say. What am I?

Hint: I keep the beat in the band.

3. I swing in my tower all week, and on Sunday morning the whole town hears me sing. What am I?

Hint: Ask not for whom I toll.

4. Voices and music pour out of me from far away, though nobody is inside. What am I?

Hint: The family gathered around me every evening.

5. Blow through me and everyone stops to listen — the referee never leaves home without me. What am I?

Hint: One sharp breath is all I need.
