

Nostalgia Riddles — Sheet 4

Instructions: Read each riddle carefully. Use the hint if you get stuck, and write your answer on the line provided.

1. I was bigger than a cassette and held your music on a continuous loop of tape in a chunky cartridge. I often got stuck in the player. What am I?

Hint: Popular in cars during the 1970s.

2. Sit on a spinning stool at my counter and order a milkshake, an egg cream, or a cherry phosphate. What am I?

Hint: Often found inside a drugstore.

3. For just a cent, you could pick me from a jar — a root beer barrel, a Mary Jane, or a piece of taffy. What am I?

Hint: The cheapest treat at the corner store.

4. Every morning, I'd appear on your doorstep in glass bottles. You'd leave the empty ones out for me to take back. What am I?

Hint: A milkman brought me to your home.

5. I was the family car with wood-paneled sides, a long body, and a big back for kids and luggage. What am I?

Hint: The ultimate family road trip vehicle.
