

Front Porch Riddles — Sheet 1

Instructions: Read each riddle carefully. Use the hint if you get stuck, and write your answer on the line provided.

1. I go back and forth all evening long but never once leave the porch. What am I?

Hint: Two can sit on me.

2. I slam to announce every coming and going, all summer long. What am I?

Hint: I keep the flies out.

3. I greet every guest before you do, though they wipe their feet on me. What am I?

Hint: I lie by the front door.

4. I stand by the road all day, waiting for my little flag to fall. What am I?

Hint: The carrier visits me at noon.

5. I glow all evening so the moths can dance and the neighbors can find your door. What am I?

Hint: Leave me on for company.
