

Sewing Room Riddles — Sheet 1

Instructions: Read each riddle carefully. Use the hint if you get stuck, and write your answer on the line provided.

1. I wear a little armor cap so the needle minds its manners. What am I?

Hint: I fit on a fingertip.

2. I unwind all day long, and the more I give, the smaller I get. What am I?

Hint: I spin as I work.

3. I am a plump little cushion bristling with silver. What am I?

Hint: Often shaped like a tomato.

4. I hum along stitch after stitch, faster than any hand could sew. What am I?

Hint: Press my pedal and I go.

5. I hold things together and promise not to poke. What am I?

Hint: My point hides under a little cap.
